RAZORBACK: Gripping Crime Fiction, Full Of Suspense

Synopsis

When a drifter rolls up into a small town, will he make it big or leave with nothing? Ex-con Vint's tongue is as sharp as the cut throat razor he carries. And he is more than ready to use both of them. When Vint stands up to some local bullies he quickly wins a reputation as a go-to man for some muscle or a fall guy for the locals' schemes. He sees an opportunity to make some money quick, but can his new friends be trusted? The local marshal wants him out of town but - cynical, calculating and cruel - Vint is not budging until he takes his all. The question is, in a town full of vipers, who is swindling whom? And will he get out alive? RAZORBACK is the second novel by Lou Holly. Be sure to check out his first, SOUTHSIDE HUSTLE, available on Kindle and in paperback.

Customer Reviews

If you like 1940s and 50s film noir, you'll love Razorback. The redneck brothers of the man Vint accidentally kills want him dead, the marshal wants him out of town before there is more bloodshed, but the temptation of a big score makes Vint stay when he should run. Razorback is sexy, dark and moody, with danger lurking around every turn. Bank robber Vint has to stay a step ahead of his enemies while juggling two very different women. This crime novel gem has more plots than a cemetery. Highly recommended!

This book started out with a bang then it just dragged out for me. I was just Okay in my opinion, nothing to really burst bubbles over.

Razorback is an exciting story! There's something for everyone! The plot has many twists and angles that keeps the reader's interest! And being set in the 50's is a great trip back in time!

A real page turner!! Great characters! I think we need a sequel to this so we can find out what happens to Vint, our lead character.

Handsome drifter...small redneck town...trouble on every corner! That's a recipe for disaster and suspense! I finished reading this book in two evenings because I had to know what was going to happen next. Vint is one unlucky bastard! The characters are believable and uncomplicated. I enjoyed the plot twists and turns, always something unexpected that involves Vint. The conclusion of the book leaves room for additional adventures...which I am looking forward to.

As thrillers go, this really was a page turner. The main character Vint is as tough as they come, he's ruthless but has a sense of justice. The people that are trying to trick him don't. It's a battle of wits as well as one fought out with a switchblade. You wouldn't want to get on the wrong side of the hero, but many do.

Super crime thriller, just what I was looking for. Vint and all the characters he meets are interesting and well developed. Plenty of back-stabbing in the underworld! Very enjoyable read, I found it hard to put down.

Exciting crime novel with evocative and atmospheric writing. The plot is so full of suspense and tension I couldn't stop reading. Holly's novel has a whole host of interesting and well-developed characters and Vint is the perfect roguish anti-hero.
