The Heart Of Black Preaching

Synopsis

Cleophus LaRue argues that the extraordinary character of black preaching derives from a distinctive biblical hermeneutic that views God as involved in practical ways in the lives of African Americans. This hermeneutic, he believes, has remained constant since the days of slavery. LaRue analyzes the distinct characteristics of African American preaching and brings the insights of both theory and practice to bear on this important subject matter.

Cleophus J. LaRue is Francis Landey Patton Professor of Homiletics at Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, New Jersey.

Another classic from Cleophus Larue which is essential when experiencing the essence of Black Preaching. I cannot find many things to criticize within the text but I would have liked for it to have more on exegesis of scripture.

needed for a class

It is what it is. You must have an understanding of what it means to be able to preach to the people of God of whom is of this ethnical group. To preach it down to the soul when the scripture tells you to lean not to thy own understanding!

The book is a great read for all black preachers.
