Customer Reviews

A fun, charming whodunit, with likable characters, a darling puppy, and an old Victorian house. Well written and easy to read, getting lost in this world is a pleasure.

what a wonderful read, sure kept me in suspense.

Really loved the book.

Really enjoyed, easy reading.

Good murder mystery it was a fun read. I would recommend it especially on a snowy winter evening curled up in your favorite chair in front of a fireplace.

The book is okay. I would read more if it is a series. I would not pay full price though. I thought ages and relationships were rather ambiguous.

It was entertaining enough. A short read that kept me just interested enough to keep reading. Not a bad read but not the best book I've ever read.

I do prefer reading heavier mysteries, but this lighter read was realistic and enjoyable. Enjoyed the background of the old houses as I have always lived in one.
