Customer Reviews

The low price belies the cursory nature of this e-book. Basic facts are given for a number of the Umbrian towns, but not much that you can't find in an Italy guide book. The hotel and restaurant information is very slim and all of the information is for the "budget traveler". Five hotels. Five restaurants - one for each of five locations. So there isn't even a hotel and restaurant listing for each of the towns that are mentioned. My guess is that you'd be better served just paying a bit more for a guide book with more information, though this one may do the trick for some people.

Very superficial and incomplete. I don't recommend it.
