Customer Reviews

How to book on costuming French and German bisque dolls.

My textiles and sewing instructor had us design period outfits for a doll as part of grade. I loved it and 40plus years later I'm still working at it...for both myself and my grand-daughter. One way I can be a part of her play life.

Book a little rougher than I thought. It was cared for and enjoyed by the previous owner. Thank you for a delightful book. Liz Excellent, Excellent, Excellent! But it was written by Mildred and Colleen Seeley....I would have expected no less!

this book has no patterns, but is still a very good resource if you want to costume your dolls as authentically as possible.

Similar to the first edition, great photos.

Good photos and examples of traditional doll clothes.

Quick delivery. Excellent in every way..

some good patterns and advice on costuming antique dolls
