Jay Heinrichs, former editor of National Wildlife magazine and Dartmouth Alumni Magazine and group publisher of the Ivy League Magazine Network, is the author of The Yankee Way to Simplify Your Life.

This is a great book to keep on hand. It has lots of helpful tips. Well worth the money.

While this book gives good common sense advice, I was disappointed. It didn't offer advice like the simple home remedies that I grew up with, that I knew really work like using baking soda paste on burns. I had hoped for more "home remedies" that really work; instead it was basic doctor type advice. Perhaps this Dr. felt too many home remedies are risky or don't work!?

Good Communications. Great Product. Quick Service. Rated AAA+++. Thank You. BEG

A GREAT BOOK TO HAVE AROUND THE HOUSE. IT GIVE YOU GREAT IDEAS WHEN YOU HAVE SOME MEDICAL PROBLEMS YOU WOULD LIKE ANSWERS TOO.

Over several years, this is the first book I've ever returned to .com. It just doesn't add anything new to the knowledge I have obtained from reading older magazines and books on natural healing and folk remedies. If you don't have this background, the book may be helpful. Still, I would recommend one of the many books from Time/Life or Prevention for more real substance and fewer pages devoted to oftimes cloying "folksy anecdotes".

Don't waste your $ . Does not work as advertised. I purchased for Skiing, vertical, Number of runs. Tried to use on 2 different trips and discarded after second one. I spend more money after that and bought a " Suunto". a lot more $ but worth it.
