Fun, easy read for my 4th grader. Loves the books. Hero's of his own age mixed with a little fiction and a little history make a great mix. Makes getting book reports done so much easier.

Another great one in the "I Survived" Series! My 11 year old grandson could not wait to get his hands on this one. I am delighted that our young reader has finally found a series that he actually wants to read!

My 6th grader loved this book, he actually loves this series. Very adventurous action. He couldn't wait to read everyday.

I chose this rating because it was really good. I enjoy this series because it's fiction and non fiction. It is easy to read and interesting. I do recommend it to others. Written by my nine years old son

While tutoring a student we were working on his assignment for his literature class which included reading this book and preparing a project. I became interested in the story line. It was especially appealing because it was based on actual events. I see other young students being attracted to this book.

This I survived book was great but the bombing of pearl harbor was better so I made it a three out of five star.

My son love it! her read it in a week! He said it was quite suspenseful!

I really love all the I survived books which deal with the real stuff. I insist my kids to read the real stories instead of fiction.
