Customer Reviews

Fhiona Galloway has been a freelance illustrator for many years and has enjoyed illustrating for a wide base of clients, including many children's publishers, which she loves. She lives in the west of Scotland with her husband, daughter and giant schnauzer and when she's not working, likes to spend time walking, watching films and reading. Jonathan Litton has written numerous children's books in prose and verse. He loves using his science background to write about sea creatures, space and saving the planet, but is also fond of penning stories about pirates, princesses and picnics. When not writing, he can usually be found on his bike. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Cute book for young readers. We have a whole stack of the my little world books and love them! :)
This one is no exception plus got it at an awesome price

This book is cute but for some reason my daughter isn't quite as into it as some of the other My Little World books that she has liked. It is still a cute, fun read once in a while though!

Great book!! My son loves all of the My Little World books. Highly recommend for any youngster who loves to flip through board books!!

One of my sons favorite books! Love the bright colors. He tries to read it himself at 16 months old. Really enjoy reading this book to him and seeing his reactions to the colorful sea animals

I Love these books and so does my daughter, the colors are bright and keep her entertained through the whole book

My 10 month old loves this. I've got it memorized at this point. I'm just glad it rhymes!

Fun, colorful book. My toddler had fun looking at the pictures. She wasn't quite patient enough to listen to the text yet, but it did nicely highlight opposites.

Colorful and interesting with a sweet poem on each page. It delighted my 7 month old grandson.
