I actually bought this for my 50-Something Year Old Husband. He is a Closet Crafter.. managing millions of dollars by day, mining by night. It's his equivalent to relaxing with a glass of wine. He might fight our 8 year old for computer time to play... he might have gotten so tickled with himself when he figured out how to turn Zombies into Villagers, he might have multisheet Minecraft spreadsheets full of data, project du jour analyses and formulae for computing how many tracks he needs to build a track from one village to the next... but he will never admit to any of it. Neva! In fact, he will tell you he's "just helping our boy a bit and that's all."BUT. I may have gotten this book for him for Christmas this year and he might have squealed-stifled-by-a-manly-throat clearing every few minutes as he "uninterestedly" perused it and made notes on what he wanted to try out... I mean, his list of stuff for me to get at the store of course= beer, peanuts, baseball hat... yanno, Manly Stuff eyeroll.I adore seeing him completely relax as he fully engages himself in the game...watching our boy play it, I mean of course. He works hard and deserves a sublimation tool like this to check out, build stuff, kill other stuff. All very Man like activities... I keep telling him to make his own world and try it out... as I walked by him while writing this a few minutes ago, I noticed rainbow colored sheep (a tip from the book) and his avatar riding a pig (another tip.from the book). He must have shared what he had read in the book with our boy... of course he did...Two Man-Sized Thumbs Up!

this book really helped me, but it only works with computer edition. I loved it! it tells you about lots of cool things like how to summon LIGHTNING and how to spawn a killer bunny and giant mobs! here are a few tricks I learned: /summon lightningbolt and /summon giant.-JD, 9 years old

Finally a Minecraft book for my 7 year old...most I have seen are just too complex or detailed. Simple tips with pictures on every page

Good guide for anyone that is into Minecraft.

I love minecraft! Although I already knew most of these and you could easily find them online, it's nice to have a little physical piece of the game and it's secrets! Loved the book! A few of the secrets may have been patched or something because they didn't work, but still a great book :)

My 8 year old bought this book to go with his collection. At first, he was reluctant and not sure whether he wanted a book of secrets. After a few short weeks, he's decided it is cool after all, but it is still second place to his handbook collection.

Great book for kids.

I thought this would have lots of new info but I guess my 8 yo already knew everything. Which surprised me but oh well. He said he learned everything from watching pat&jen videos on YouTube.
