Serving My Viking Masters, Book 2: Spoils Of War

Synopsis

Captured on a Viking raid, beautiful and innocent Kira is forced to become a bed slave to powerful King Barek. The slave girl must quickly learn how to best please her new master, a harsh disciplinarian who demands obedience and takes great delight in punishing Kira's nubile young body thoroughly and often. But Barek is not the only man driven mad with lust for the slave girl's tender flesh. Stalked and cornered by the king's warriors while he is away, Kira submits to their ravishment to save her life, reluctantly finding pleasure in their rough attentions. Although her body is no longer her own, Kira's thoughts are consumed by only one man - Dreng, the strapping warrior who stole her heart with an act of kindness. Will Dreng's sense of honor keep him from claiming what they both desire?

Customer Reviews

Great set of books! You get pulled in with by the story and heated by the to erotic action. Read all 4

I am not big on short story books.

Note: I received an ARC in exchange for an honest review. Serena Starling does it again! This book continues the story of Kira and the brutal Vikings, and it is a phenomenal read for anyone who wants a steamy, somewhat dark erotic story written with attention to all the right details. The plot is compelling, the characters are believable and well-developed, and the sex scenes are "someone put on the AC, please" HOT! I can't wait to read the next in the series.

Book 2 is just as awesome as the first! Can't wait for the next in this series!

highly inaccurate. slaves did not have any status at all it doesn't matter if he's a king, she is still a slave. they did not have special status. only viking born women were held in high regard, not the thralls. slaves were just that. they were used for farming, cleaning, chores and female ones for sex depending on their age. They also did not become brides.
