Nobody's Son: All Alex Ever Wanted Was A Family Of His Own

Synopsis

Born in a prison and removed from his drug-dependent mother, rejection is all that 7-year-old Alex knows. When Cathy is asked to foster little Alex, aged 7, her immediate reaction is: Why can't he stay with his present carers for the last month? He's already had many moves since coming into care as a toddler and he'll only be with her a short while before he goes to live with his permanent adoptive family. But the present carers are expecting a baby and the foster mother isn't coping, so Alex goes to live with Cathy. He settles easily and is very much looking forward to having a forever family of his own. The introductions and move to his adoptive family go well. But Alex is only with them for a week when problems begin. What happens next is both shocking and upsetting, and calls into question the whole adoption process.

Customer Reviews

Shame on Rosemary and Edward for what they did to Alex. How do you treat a child like that? I Do not care who the child belongs to you do not treat them that way. They damaged that poor boy.

Thank goodness for Cathy ,Gwen and her husband as they did save him. You did a great job Cathy as did Alex adoptive family who now Love him forever. I relize he is an adult now and hope he himself gets to read these reviews. Keep being happy Alex.

As usual with Cathy Glass, this is a remarkable read that I can identify with. She is brilliant and an excellent, loving, MOST PATIENT career.
