Finding David ("Finding David" Series Book 1)

Synopsis

"As soon as he got on the bus, David knew the students at the back were talking about him!" David didn't expect much from his first day at a new school—but it seems he had "enemies" even before he got off the bus. With his family falling apart, moving to a new area brings challenges and opportunities, particularly great surf and a nearby forest seemingly made for mountain biking. With new friends, David confronts his own fears, as well as the tasks of forgiving and connecting. Finding David is a story of relationships, family, friends and taking risks for them all. "Seriously, the book's good." —Bree-Ann
