Customer Reviews

The Pendragon's Champions, unlike the previous four novellas in the series, focuses on four of Cade's friends - Dafydd, Hywel, Bedwyr and Goronwy and their mission to bring the other Welsh Kings to the banner of King Cadwaladr ap Cadwallon (Cade) as he prepares to meet the Saxons at Shrewsbury. Each meets adventure along the way and Mabon puts in some unexpected appearances in his search for some important magical artifacts. As usual, Sarah has written an engrossing read that I find very difficult to put down - I love the setting in ancient Wales, the inclusion of Welsh myth and magical artifacts, and of course I love the story and characters. Her books are full of such vibrant characters that leap from the pages and I enjoy been carried away to this long ago time that marries myth/legend and with the historical. I recommend this exciting book and series - it is truly an entertaining and exciting story.

Very well thought out and written. Enjoyed the continuation of the Arthurian legend.

Great book.

Ever book in this series just gets better and better wish it hadn't stopped there entertaining

was good

Splendid!
