The Gentle Amish Girl - Remembering Love (Amish Romance)

Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED Struggling to live a normal life in a community where she had suffered an attack which she could not remember, has Rebecca reliving the horror of the moment over and over in her nightmares. Her older sister rescues her and brings her to the neighboring Amish community, under the auspices of helping her during the last days of her pregnancy, and with the pending birth and care of her new bopli. She leaves the new addition to the Amish community, Carol, and her old friend Noah behind, but will miss her truest friend, Paul, the most. It was Paul who had saved her from the icy stream, unconscious and bleeding after her attack. It was Paul who was always around, but she felt he held a secret which might affect her happiness in some big way. Away from everyone she knows, Rebecca meets the handsome Caleb. Will he bring her the happiness and comfort she seeks?

VERY GOOD

Would read more of her books. Love the fashion of the Amish life. Wish people would read the books and realize life could work without all the drama that the world has now.

Rebecca is running through the woods, trying to get away. She comes to the creek and tries to catch her breath, then her head is hit and she is in the water, unconscious. Paul finds her, pulls her out and takes her home. When she finally comes to, she doesn't remember anything from that day, plus a few other things. Two months later she goes to the next town to help her sister who is about to have her first boppli. It is while she is there that bits keep coming back and then it all comes back. A good quick read. Hannah's stories are never disappointing.

Another good read by Hannah Schrock, the Amish romance reminds me of simpler times. As some would say when the grass was greener, but most of all neighbors cared for one another.

The Gentle Amish Girl is a gentle and enjoyable book to read. I have read many of Hannah Schrock books and this one is equal to the others. She is an excellent author.

This book was very well written with a little suspense. While staying with her sister, she started to remember things.

Enjoyed the sample but cannot see how/where to click to read the rest of the book?
