Quicklaw UCC Article 9

Synopsis

This outline covers Article 9 of the UCC and the complex problems that go along with such. Included in this book are examples and explanations of everything that are presented under Art 9. After reading this you will understand everything from priority disputes, PMSIS, perfection, attachment, secured party's rights, and the bankruptcy process under Ch.7 and Ch.11. For such an in-depth area of the law there is not many books published that analyze and explain such. As a practicing bankruptcy attorney that has worked for years to understand such a novel area of the law it is only practical that I give every piece of knowledge I have of this area to aspiring attorneys, Law students, and those who have an interest in such an area of the law that not many understand. This book includes case briefs, examples and explanations, problems, and a clear-cut list of the elements of the legal principles that one will need in order to master this subject!
