A Child's Gift Of Art

Synopsis

Four beautifully illustrated miniature books in an attractive slipcase are written for children in early grades. They recount delightful episodes from the lives of four master artists. Leonardo da Vinci, Edgar Degas, Pablo Picasso, and Vincent van Gogh come to life in these stories—but the artists are not their story's main characters. Each little book tells the story of a child's pleasant encounter with one of these renowned artists. Appealing color illustrations by the author help to dramatize each story. Included among the illustrations are faithful reproductions of some of each artist's most famous works, thus introducing young readers to the artists' accomplishments. Titles are Leonardo and the Flying Boy, Degas and the Little Dancer, Picasso and the Girl with a Ponytail, and Camille and the Sunflowers, the last, a story about Vincent van Gogh. (Ages 4-8)

Customer Reviews

The Child's Gift of Art, a boxed set by Laurence Anholt, contains four handsized titles, each a tale about a child's encounter with an artist: Leonardo and the Flying Boy (da Vinci); Degas and the Little Dancer; Picasso and the Girl with the Ponytail; and Camille and the Sunflowers (van Gogh).

Reproductions of actual works appear; each volume closes with a brief biography of the artist. Ages 4-8

This bundle of four children's books is an absolute joy to read and a great buy. They provide insight into the lives of our impressionist artists & a memorable story for each. My twin boys just love these books. I'll be definitely looking for more from the collection. They are great for adults too as there are facts about each artist at the back of the book that I didn't even know!!

These books are great for young readers with good eyes. To read aloud to a group of children the pictures are too small in this four pack and the words are a bit small to glance at to read. I Liked all the books, they were just more compact than what I was needing them for.

I loved these little books and so did my 10 and 7 year olds. The books are wonderful in any size but my 7 year old really enjoyed having the little books. We want more.

Great books but set is too small. Invest in the regular size instead cause the books are really good. My 6 year old reads them over and over.
