This is the book I will give not only to people beginning their Jewish journeys but also to serious students of Judaism." — Rabbi Laura Geller, senior rabbi, Temple Emanuel of Beverly Hills

Arthur Green, PhD, is recognized as one of the world’s preeminent authorities on Jewish thought and spirituality. He is the Irving Brudnick professor of philosophy and religion at Hebrew College and rector of the Rabbinical School, which he founded in 2004. Professor emeritus at Brandeis University, he also taught at the University of Pennsylvania and the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College, where he served as dean and president. Dr. Green is author of several books including Judaism’s Ten Best Ideas: A Brief Guide for Seekers; Ehyeh: A Kabbalah for Tomorrow; Seek My Face: A Jewish Mystical Theology; Your Word Is Fire: The Hasidic Masters on Contemplative Prayer and Tormented Master: The Life and Spiritual Quest of Rabbi Nahman of Bratslav (all Jewish Lights). He is also author of Radical Judaism (Yale University Press) and coauthor of Speaking Torah: Spiritual Teachings from around the Maggid’s Table. He is long associated with the Havurah movement and a neo-Hasidic approach to Judaism.

This is a wonderful summary of the most important tenets of Judaism. It is easy to read and presents the beliefs in a way that is compelling and reflective of the depth and beauty of the faith, without going into too much detail on practices. This is a must read for non-jews wishing to understand what Judaism is all about. It is also a good choice for Jews whose faith could use a little boost.

Arthur Green has an ability to distill down key ideas and here his fresh takes on essential ideas is welcome. In some sense, this is almost more for non-Jews or converts, but Green’s style keeps it engaging nonetheless. My only complaint is that this avoids some of the harder issues of Jewish faith, but that criticism seems to be asking the book to be a different book. For those who want an overview of religious judaism, this is a good place to start.

This little book is a gem. The Jews have so much to offer Christians such as myself.

I found this book to be most insightful for me as a non-Jew.

Dr. Green is a great scholar, his Tormented Master is forever one of my favorite biographies. The ten best ideas are a bit on the "schwach" side. However for those who know little or nothing about Judaism it's a good introduction.

Dr. Green has authored the perfect introduction for seekers wishing to explore the fundamentals of Judaism. I commend this book to my fellow Christians who too wish to understand the basic tenets of their religious heritage.

Gave this to a friend considering becoming a "Jew By Choice" as an introduction to some of the important ideas in the realm of Judaism.

Very small and quick read. I have it as a bathroom reader. Also good for just having around the house, especially if you have non-Jewish visitors.
