Perfect and simple way to introduce the idea of ecosystems to tiny toddlers. Contains safari, polar, desert, ocean, rain forest, and outback scenes that include plants and animals that live in each of those areas. Many animal species are labeled and some even have cool facts. Some animals are revealed when lift up flaps. Flaps are more complicated and the sentences longer so I would say age 2-3 would be best for this book.

Nice thick pages and cute illustrations. Also contains interesting facts about animals ... not that my toddler cares about that right now haha

This book has really great, colorful pictures. I really like that it includes many lesser-known species that other children's books leave out. My one-year-old loves looking at it and lifting the flaps.
