Defeating Your Adversary In The Court Of Heaven

Synopsis

Are believers really allowed to appear in the court of heaven? In the last few years, an increasing number of believers have appeared in the courts of heaven to answer accusations that were brought against them by an adversary. As a result of their appearance, illnesses have vanished, legal proceedings against them have been halted and demonic attacks have suddenly stopped. These things cannot all be written off as coincidence. Many Christians have been surprised when they first hear the courts of heaven exist. Many more have been shocked at how their lives have changed after appearing in court and facing their adversary. The courts are places where the legal proceedings of heaven are carried out. Cases are brought before a Judge, witnesses testify and rulings are handed down. Just like in a human court, if an accusation is brought against us in the court of heaven and it goes unanswered, it can cause trouble. Many of us are being accused right now by an adversary in the court of heaven and aren't aware of it. With the same down-to-earth teaching style used in Traveling in the Spirit Made Simple and Divine Healing Made Simple, Praying Medic clearly explains what the courts are and why we may want to appear in them. After reading the Bible-based teaching, testimonies and simple illustrations provided in this book, even the least experienced believer will be able to boldly go before the court and obtain victory. This book answers the most common questions people have about the courts of heaven. Why, when and how we can appear there and how to obtain victory over an accuser. There's even a simple, step-by-step protocol provided at the end of the book that shows you exactly what to say and what not to say. What you'll learn: What the courts of heaven are Why you should appear in court How to appear in court How to know when you're being accused Knowing what the accusation is Responding to an accusation Being exonerated by the court Receiving a verdict Obtaining scrolls Enforcing the verdict

I read Defeating Your Adversary in The Court of Heaven early yesterday morning.. I had more questions than answers afterwards. If the enemy has been defeated and plundered, if the sacrifice of Jesus was successful, if the scriptures in the epistles are true, why does the enemy and these evil spirits have such total control over the believer such that the believer could not obtain a breakthrough without going to these courts to repent and obtain a release and come back to the earth and enforce the release to get a breakthrough. According to the book the evil spirits might even disregard the release!!! Also according to the author it is difficult to see the one presiding over this court with Jesus acting as the advocate. Several things I read in the book bothered me: 1. "If someone is accused and they fail to appear and answer the accusations, they cannot be exonerated, even if they are not guilty". I guess this applies to believers. The author cites Job and Joshua in Zechariah. But he did not mention the fact that in Job we were told that Satan appeared with the sons of God in what looked like a meeting of a sort of council. He also forgot that at that time Satan was operating with Adam's authority that he got through the sin of man. My understanding of the work of Christ is that it is no longer the case, because Jesus at His resurrection declared "all authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth". 2. The books that contained the record of the sins committed by those who visit these mobile courts are opened. This goes against the scriptures and the finished work of Christ. If I have to appear in these courts to obtain forgiveness, and there is a record of my sins, and the enemy still has such a power over the believer it seems to indicate that something is lacking in the sacrifice of Christ. What do we do with 1 John 2:1 "My dear children, I am writing this to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate who pleads our case before the Father. He is Jesus Christ, the one who is truly righteous". What about 1 John 1:8-9 "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness". 3. What happens to the believer who does not appear in the court to answer the accusation, does his sin remain in the book? What happens to him if he dies without appearing to the court to have that sin removed from that book? Does he have to deal with it then or just go on to hell? 4. What happened to Rev 12:7-11 if the enemy can still come before God and accuse you? 4. What happened to Romans 8:1-2, 33-34 if we can be condemned by the enemy's accusation? 5. How do I interpret Heb 9:13-14? If the Old Testament saints obtained their breakthrough through the blood of animals, why is it that the blood of Jesus cannot give me that minimum? I can go on and on one scripture after the other. I need more from the author..My understanding of the scriptures is that Jesus is supreme over the whole of creation, and that His sacrifice was the ultimate and supersedes every other sacrifice from the beginning to the end of time, that is the only sacrifice that still resounds in all of creation. He became sin, He bore the consequences of sin, He became the curse, He defeated, death, the grave, principalities and powers, and the rulers of darkness, "He rendered powerless he who HAD the power of death that is the Devil, and He holds the keys of Death and Hades". It is difficult to believe the scriptures and believe what I read. I believe our problem is the mixing of the Old and New Covenants and the lack of true understanding of the finished work. May the Lord open our understanding of what He has already done.

I found that this book made it easy for me to understand and took away my fear of it all. As soon as I finished reading I went to the Court and was able to navigate easily and do what it said. I highly recommend this simply written, easy to understand book. I have several of Praying Medics books and have loved them all and this one is no exception.

I appreciate all of Praying Medics books because they are always easy to read and understand. I had wondered about the subject of the courtrooms of heaven and he has given me somethings to think about.

This is the first book I have ever read by Praying Medic and I will certainly read another! His ability to communicate in a clear and concise manner made reading this book so enjoyable!The book was an easy read, but there was great depth to the content. He doesn't waste time with unnecessary illustrative fluff, and yet does an excellent job of conveying his message. As he mentions in the book, he gets in-depth about one of the courts of heaven, while there are many.After reading the book, I felt equipped and prepared to stand before the accuser in court. Reading the book was certainly a great intro into the subject of the courts of heaven. Recently, I have been hearing many people teach on this subject, but from a much higher level of understanding.For anyone who is new, or somewhat familiar, to understanding the courts of heaven, this is a great book to start with. I found the text to be very intriguing and quite practical also.I noticed that as I read the book that I began having visions of the reality of the truth that was shared in this text. Our adversary is standing before God, just like in the book of Job, trying to accuse us of anything he can. It is our right and our responsibility to appear in the courtroom that we may plead the blood of Christ Jesus as our defense. I highly recommend this book to anyone who desires to stand before God in the courts of heaven.

As with all of Praying Medic's books, pod casts and other forums, I find this book to be a practical, evangelical teaching on prophetic "basic" tools we should all have, that are sadly not approached in current day churches. I've tried to read other solid books on The Courts of Heaven; found them to be heavy to read and left me unclear how to enter the process on my own behalf...overwhelming and intimidating. This book was refreshing, put all the pieces together. Can't recommend highly enough! We can all enter with confidence!

As usual Praying Medic gives an easy to understand how to do it reference. He doesn't just tell you stories but gives you the simple steps to getting it done. Every Christ follower needs to have this understanding so the enemy of our souls/spirits won't be able to destroy us in our everyday life or our destiny. I love the way Praying Medic is gifted to communicate what seems like complicated topics into easy to understand things that we can use every day.

I chose this rating because of its impact on my life. Now let's see what God has revealed into and through the spirit of this author, this insightful Man of God regarding the various other topics he alluded to, the higher courts, the courts of angels, of chancellors, the courts of scribes. I really appreciate this and would strongly recommend it to anyone who is really serious about doing effective godly Kingdom businesses on a whole, for the glory of God. Now I'm going to continue to search for and compare other perspectives on the entire subjects regarding the Courts of Heaven, those that are complete, covering all, with a greater and more in-depth, or comprehensive range, if you will. This is great for starters, but nowadays, there's a remnant of God's people who are studying and searching for complete details to help further edify the Body of Christ. Keep up the great work, in Jesus name.
