Not necessarily familiar with all of them and they aren't necessarily the easiest chords to play. I don't know that I would recommend it for a beginner. Also there are a couple songs that don't have chords, so one should know how to read music. Your mileage may vary...

FOR THE PRICE YOU WILL GET A GREAT SONGBOOK. THE COLLECTION CONTAINS AN EXCELLENT VARIETY OF IRISH SONGS. AAA+++ GREAT

If you ever listen to The Clancy Brothers (and who wouldn't?) this is the songbook for you, although a few classics are missing. The children love them, as do the grownups.

I have actually had this book for some time but my old copy was damaged. I use it enough that I chose to replace it. If you are looking at this book then you should pretty much already know what it is. It is a collection of sheet music with lyrics and guitar chords for many of the Clancy Brothers songs. Not much else to say about it.

This is a very good songbook, but much more serious than I required. Several of the songs were in Gaelic, and could not be used for my purpose. I did return the book, not because it was not good it just was not right for me.

As advertised --

I bought this many years ago and later gave it to a friend. I missed it. now I have it again and will keep this one! It's a treasure to anyone who loves Irish music.

Bought as resource gift for my wife who plays traditional songs folk guitar. She enjoys the variety of songs & fills gaps in other sources.
