IT IS A VERY HELPFUL BOOK. sPECIALLY TO A FOREIGNER LIKE ME AND DO NOT HAVE JOB EXPERIENCE YET IN THIS COUNTRY.

I have devoured this book! Great, easy, quick read. A lot of it is common sense, but once you start reading, you realize how many people you know that need this information! So many answered questions in a clear, relatable form.

Great book for young people entering the workforce.

Great information. Gives you pause for thought on industry best practices.

I didn't think I'd actually like this book as much as I did, but it is wonderful. Clear concise advice that is easy to look up. I couldn't have asked for a better book!

Excellent book! I bought one for each of my almost grown kids!!

Business Etiquette is an ok book. There are some good examples about etiquette and how to handle business situations. But there are some chapters and notes that are, in the attempt of being enjoyable and amusing, quite silly.

I really enjoyed this book and it taught me many essential tips for business etiquette. Barbara Pachter, a business etiquette and communications speaker, goes over several business etiquette rules and techniques to use in the real world. My favorite thing about this book is she gives her real life experiences and stories throughout the book, so your able to see that the things you think are silly really do happen in real life. She gives tips ranging from how to introduce yourself to how to dine at a formal event. She also adds a few sections that are tips you wouldn't find in an older business etiquette book, such as tips dealing with social media. I would give this book a 5/5 and highly recommend it to anyone entering or already in the business field.
