Customer Reviews

This book starts with a small narrative about the main character whose name is BomBom. Who happens to be a creeper mob. He's starting school as the title suggests. Early on he runs into trouble with a blaze mob called Ian by accident. Ironically he also manages to make friends with his near twin Dante who happens to be Ian's brother. The story tells a tale of troubles that we've all faced at some point in our school lives. From bullying to hating things we have to do but doing them anyway. Granted it does so in its own very unique way considering they're mobs. It's a great book for any age. It's got illustrations for the younger crowd. The story is interesting enough for an older crowd as well. The book is polished and well written. I picked up the second book in the series by mistake first. Glad I decided to go back and grab this one.

Another great story from Christopher Craft! This one shows us how middle school is for the mobs! They face some of the same situations everyone faces in school, like making friends and bullying. This story is from the perspective of a creeper named Baboom. He is just starting middle school and has to learn to deal with the new experiences. He soon finds his way and makes some new friends. It's interesting to see how all the mobs go to school together. I can't wait for the next installment to find out how the school year is going!

If you love minecraft you will love this book! I read it with my little brother and we were hooked! It is a awesome diary series with great characters and fun stories! We seriously can't wait for the second book!
