As senior editor for Learning, Literacy, and STEM at National Geographic Kids Books, Alinsky edits and acquires author-driven titles such as Welcome to Mars, by Buzz Aldrin, Brain Games, by Jennifer Swanson, Dining With Dinosaurs by Hannah Bonner, and You Can Be a Paleontologist by Scott D. Sampson, as well as the managing highly successful series, such as National Geographic Kids Readers series, the National Geographic Kids Chapter Books series, and the newly launched National Geographic Kids How Things Work series. Formerly an educational editor, Alinsky's experience has ranged from developing fun, informative children's books to creating innovative teaching guides, classroom materials, top-rated educational apps, and consulting for popular kids' YouTube channels. Alinsky's focus is on bringing highly engaging content to all children to foster a lifelong love of learning.

The whole national geographic kids selection is amazing. They are quick books that get my son involved in reading. Not only does he enjoy reading already he is so excited to see what other books are in the series. I use these as incentives for good work at school and chores at home. Such a large variety is on I will buy a few at a time and keep them for rewards. Great buy. You will not be sorry

We love these books.

I bought it for a student. Hopefully he liked it. I thought it was nice.

Super satisfied. The book was a gift to my granddaughter's classroom. Prompt delivery !

Beautiful pictures and simple text

My grandchildren and I LOVE this series !

Great
