I found this to be just as advertised. Great historic information and folklore. it is well worth a read. The copy was in excellent condition, with a library pocket in the cover. It obviously wasn't checked out much.

This is a great read and if you are loyal New Jersey fan, there's lots of interesting stuff. Much of it still here! There was one written for each state during the Great Depression to give writers a job. These are little known gems.

A wonderful guide to New Jersey 3/4 of a century ago. Reading the book I can picture a totally different world. I love the "automobile tour" section and it is interesting seeing how things have changed so much. A fascinating read for anyone who lives in NJ today.
