Another good read from our author. He must be a real hoot when he talks because his writings continue to keep us coming back for more. Kindle Unlimited brought us together, but I now own 20 something, maybe 30, of his books. The new Baba Yaga is a woman after my heart. I hope one day to read how the cats become members of the teams. The interaction with Asher and Bellitrix puppies would be fun. Keep them coming Michael Anderle and team. I will be reading.

While i always enjoy any book with Bethany Ann, i enjoyed this one much more than the last. Michael kept the story going all the way to the end. felt the big battle wasn't cut so short this time. while i understand why, im still unsure if i like baba yaga taking the credit in place of Bethany Anne. but she is a really scary cool avatar. keep up t he good work Michael!

Another very fun BA adventure. I rarely give 5 stars but this was that enjoyable. It could've used a little more Clarke's Revised Third Law: "Any sufficiently advanced magic is indistinguishable from technology" It ends well and will have all of us KGU fans clamoring for Volume *5 again...*volume 19.

This book made me sad, happy and excited while reading it. Mike did a good job writing it. Next! We learn to make the distinction between persona of the empress, the queen bitch and the newly created one that I ain't gonna spoil. Lot of feels and awesome swearing.

I can't get enough of this series,the book's come out and I read until the end in one go. I love how you feel like the characters are your family and friends,like I wish I was there with them. Bethany Anne is a great roll model,someone we can all try to be like.

Another high point in the series (that already has a lot of them ...)Would be a good read by itself, but read the series in order and when you get to this one -- GREAT!Strongly Recommended.

Good storyline, continuous action, lots of fight scenes, some loss of people that further the story. I can't wait till she reunites with her beloved, I'm guessing she still has a ways to go first.

It's like catching up with old friends. Old friends who like to bring hurt to those who dare take advantage of innocents, or harm any one of "theirs".Another Bethany Ann fun book. The interaction between the characters and the way they all stand up for the innocent people. Love this book. Might does Make Right!
