Customer Reviews

Bedtime Stories for Babies book is not just for amusement, it will likewise enable you in a fascinating and abnormal approach to instruct your youngster about what's good and bad, fellowship and common offer assistance. These decent short stories will wind up noticeably unavoidable before sleep time. Thank you to the author for this great book.

They are trustworthy! I can't wait to show my friends and family and encourage them to buy! A satisfying product I bought this time. outstanding product that is easy to use will purchase products from this company again, as needed. take the chance and watch with amazement!

A nice and kind book. Excellent illustrations. In each short history, there is a value context. This is very important for the upbringing of the kid. A great book that not only educates of children but also warms the soul of an adult person.

This book has very colorful images but A nice and kind book. The stories are written in the simple sweet style and are very readable . I recommend it. To all

This book will teach your kid to make friends and responsibility for his actions. This is not another book about going to sleep, stories are interesting and will show your child how to behave. Also like so much illustration of this book - very warm and pretty pictures, great work of an illustrator. My nephew love this book so much. Highly recommend!

Lots of terrific stories...all sorts. This book has colorful images...well drawn. Great quality, well made and very enjoyable. Very happy with this purchase. My 8 year old son has autism and these stories hold his attention and the images are easy for him to comprehend. Writer Uncle Nick is a really great book writer in this time .

First of all, I should say this book is pretty good and cute. Especially the illustrations are very nice. But I can't say there so many of them. It would be better to be a little bit more. The stories are written in the simple sweet style and are very readable and so easy to become asleep and dream. I read this book with my pleasure. I recommend it.
