Ã¢ "It took me a while to find a text that I am happy with. Once I found this one, I stopped searching.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Donna Meester, University of Alabama, USAÃ¢ "The organization of the book is excellent.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Emily Banis Stoehrer, Fisher College, USAÃ¢ "I do not think there is another that has this much detail, but introduces concepts well without overwhelming undergraduate students.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Diana Saiki, Ball State University, USAÃ¢ "The contents match precisely to what I am teaching, which is why I like this book so much. I think this book far outweighs any other book.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Rhonda R. Gorman, Texas Woman's University, USAÃ¢ "I feel the book is written with the correct amount and detail for undergraduate students of fashion history.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Alexandra Thelin, Montclair State University, USAÃ¢ "Compared to other books [Survey of Historic Costume] is more or equally comprehensive, and has better instructor Guides and student study help. I find [Survey of Historic Costume] a better tool student success than any other text I have used.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Elizabeth Cole Sheehan, Lasell College, USAÃ¢ "I think the design and layout is well-done and user-friendly.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Catherine Amoroso Leslie, Kent State University, USAÃ¢ "One of the best things is the context it provides for dress in each era - social, political, historical, etc. It's detailed and much better organized than other books I have as an option for this course.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Jennifer Banning, Illinois State University, USAÃ¢ "I have always used this book. I do not think there is another that has this much detail, but introduces concepts well without overwhelming undergraduate students.Ã¢ • Ã¢ "Diana Saiki, Ball State University, USAÃ¢ "Compared to other books [Survey of Historic Costume] is more or equally

I love this book, I use it as my teaching source for my Fashion History class in our theatre and film department. I wish I had known about it in time to get the instructors version through school. It has a good vocabulary section for fashion terminology and my students appreciate the references from historical time periods that influenced contemporary fashion pieces. The context of fashion as human history works well to engage budding directors and designers in seeing clothing as the extension of characters within any particular time period. I wish I had access to more of the interactive materials.

It's a textbook not sure if I can love it.. but it was/is a good resource to learn from.

This book is an excellent and detailed source on costumes through the ages. Not sure why the others reviews are a bit harsh on it, but I am more than pleased. I don't find it so awful in that it lacks bunches of colorful prints- heck, if all the drawings were colorized this book would be a very expensive resource.I'm a simple person, and I'm very pleased with the entire book.

Very comprehensive and detailed. A ton of work went into this book. Excellent educational-university resource. Needs a bit more on accessories and more pictures of objects within museum or private collections for reference

I love this textbook! It helped me so much for my history of costumes class, and then for my senior collection as a fashion design student I referenced it for inspiration.

Huge book, but good info and pictures.

Great book a little big but a lot of great details
