Cee Cee Berlin No. 2

Synopsis

Cee Cee is one of Berlin's most widely read online mediums, with 30,000 readers every week. For five years, Cee Cee has charted and appraised the capital's perpetually changing urban landscape, tracing the diverse and multifaceted gastronomy and cultural scenes. The selection of recommendations is carefully vetted and has become an indispensable guide for Berlin lovers—resident expats and locals, visitors from Germany and abroad. After the huge success of "Cee Cee Berlin," the creators now present the second volume. The book is chock-full with more than 200 fresh tips: hidden cafés and neighborhood bars, concept stores and specialty restaurants, destinations further afield in the surrounding countryside, and a dedicated and detailed analysis of the hyperlocal. Numerous photographs and full-page spreads of the city visualize the Berlin of today, and recommendations from guest contributors in the art and culture sector as well as insider tips make this book a veritable treasure trove for explorers. The book is a must-have for locals, Berlin fans, and the Berliners of tomorrow.
