How Do Dinosaurs Stay Safe?

Synopsis

From crossing the street with Mama to encountering a stranger, the playful but careful antics of America's favorite dinosaurs will make readers laugh aloud -- and prompt discussion of safety issues. Few things in childhood are as important as learning how to behave safely, and the topic deserves discussion in every family. Now Jane Yolen and Mark Teague deftly approach this critical subject with warmth, humor, and hilarity. The wildly funny contrast between Teague's massive dinosaur children and their human-sized surroundings makes this subject especially appealing and funny. Where a book about safety for children might be potentially frightening, the antics of immense dinosaurs jumping on the bed or learning how to dial 9-1-1 on Mama's tiny phone will keep readers laughing from start to finish. Parents, children, teachers, and other caregivers need a comfortable way to discuss safety, and this book provides just that. And as children learn invaluable rules about safe behavior, they'll beg to read it again and again for the wildly appealing silliness on each page. Here is a book that belongs in every household!

PreS-Gr 2 •This much-needed addition to the series explores everyday situations. Yolen's rhyming text tackles recreational safety ("He wears/a good helmet/when riding his bike/takes bottles of water/when on a long hike."), safety at home ("Is he rough with the cat?/Does he stand up/on chairs?/When Mama says 'No!'/does he run down the stairs?"), and a reminder that every "dinosaur" should know when and how to dial 911. Teague's bright illustrations are wonderfully whimsical, with colorful dinosaurs taking up the bulk of the spreads. Their expressions, and those of the diverse humans, are a delight, from the worried looks of dinos behaving unsafely to the loving looks of caregivers seeing their charges safe and having fun. Seasoned dinosaur enthusiasts will appreciate having the proper name for each creature included in the text and endpapers. Books on safety can verge on didactic, but not this simple, lovely title— it's all sorts of fun. An excellent addition to all picture book collections. —Amy Koester, Learning Experiences Department, Skokie PL

HOW DO DINOSAURS SAY HAPPY CHANUKAH? "Yolen's characteristically wry verse is flawless in its rhyme and rhythm, and . . . the art's buttoned-up 1950s fashions and furnishings provide a comical visual contrast to the outlandish, brightly colored dinosaurs." --PUBLISHERS WEEKLY

HOW DO DINOSAURS SAY I'M MAD? "Pair this outstanding title with Molly Bang's classic WHEN SOPHIE GETS ANGRY--REALLY, REALLY ANGRY. . . . Yolen's story is spot-on and can easily be used in a storytime about anger, or in a one-on-one setting." --SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL

. . . not only will this title be a favorite at storytime, it may also serve as a discussion starter about feelings and how best to express and cope with them." --KIRKUS REVIEWS

My 3 yr old son loves these so I said books. We have several of them. This one doesn't seem to "flow" as easily as the others and my son rarely asks to read it, sticking with some of the other ones.

Perfect quality and just what I expected

These series of books are fantastic! My grandsons, age 4 and 7 both love them and ask for other titles each year on their birthdays.

Six year old loves this series as does his friends.

Five years ago I came across the "...Say Goodnight", "...Eat Their Food", and "...Get Well Soon" books, loved the artwork and the lyricism, and so did the kids! We revisited them regularly, til they were reading (or had memorized!) all the lines. But with the last few books, I feel that my high expectations are no longer being met, especially in the writing department, where the word choice has developed an unnatural, forced quality that makes reading these to my kids something bordering on a chore. Hence the 3 stars. Might be time to bring our complete "How Do Dinosaurs" collection to my classroom library. (BTW, this year our favorite book is Jon Klassen's "I Want My Hat Back".)

Love it!

Great start to teach kiddos about staying safe.

This entire series is wonderful for toddlers and preschoolers. I am an early childhood teacher and they are a huge hit!
